

FATHER AND DAUGHTER
KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR.Fodder, in Hospital, Gave Address of House Where He Is Not Known.

Joseph Fodder, fifty-five years of age, and his seventeen-year-old daughter Susan, while crossing Second avenue at Eighth-street last night, were struck by a north-bound car and knocked out of the pavement. They received numerous lacerations and bruises and were taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Fodder said he lived at No. 25 East Ninety-seventh street, but at that address a Dr. Singer, who lives there, said nobody of the name lived in the house.

You'll find this rarely delicious on breakfast cakes, hot bread or biscuits—B & O Table SyrupServe it every meal. It's a pure sugar syrup—not a bit of glucose or adulterant in it. Made from real cane sugar.At your grocer's—2-lb. can, 15c.
